Foundation Opportunities

Community Health Impact Grants. Kaiser Permanente invites applications that focus on ways to enhance access to physical, mental and/or behavioral health care. Special consideration will be given to those groups that demonstrate that the effort for which the funds are sought is being done in collaboration with another organization. Grants may not be used to provide direct health care or other services. Only nonprofit organizations with 501(c)(3) are eligible. Grants of up to $25,000 will be awarded. Letters of intent must be received by noon on Friday, October 6, 2000 with the following information:

- ✍ A summary of the need, program, and impact
- ✍ A description of the organization
- ✍ Information about partner organizations
- ✍ Long and short term outcomes
- ✍ An evaluation plan
- ✍ Contact details for the organization

Send letters to: Patricia Matthews, Divisional Director, Community Relations, Kaiser Permanente, 2101 E. Jefferson Street, Rockville, MD 20852.

Rudy Bruner Award for Urban Excellence. The Rudy Bruner Award is given to urban places that demonstrate the successful integration of collaborative processes and meaningful values into good design. The project must be a real place, not just a plan or program. The deadline is December 4, 2000. The Gold Medal winner receives $50,000 and each of four Silver Medalists receives $10,000. For information or to receive an application, call (617) 492-8401 ext.184 or email application@brunerfoundation.org. Also see www.brunerfoundation.org.

Visual and Media Arts. The Creative Capital Foundation supports art with the potential for significant artistic and cultural impact. Media arts include documentary, animation, non-traditional narratives, and interdisciplinary projects. Visual arts include painting, sculpture, works on paper, installations, photography, and contemporary crafts. Artists with at least five years of demonstrable experience are eligible. The foundation plans to fund 15 projects in each of the two categories at levels ranging from $5,000 to $20,000. For more information call (212) 598-9900 box 300 or email info@creative-capital.org. Also see www.creative-capital.org/application/index.html.

Technology Projects. The Progressive Technology Project seeks to strengthen citizen action, increase public participation by under-represented communities, and build stronger grassroots organizations by supporting the effective use of information technology. Funds can be used for training, technical support, consulting, needs assessment, planning, hardware and software, application design, and system set up. Between 12 and 15 grants of up to $10,000 will be made to advance community-organizing efforts. For more information call (202) 387-9660 or email info@progressivetechnology.org. Also see www.progressivetechnology.org.

Pediatric AIDS Emergency Assistance. The Elizabeth Glaser Pediatric AIDS Foundation supports hospitals and clinical facilities that provide medical care to significant populations of HIV-infected infants, children, adolescents and pregnant women. Eligible facilities are hospitals or clinics providing direct comprehensive medical care with a caseload of 20 or more HIV-infected children and adolescents or twenty or more HIV-infected pregnant women. The deadline is November 15, 2000. Grants of up to $10,000 are available. For additional information contact (310) 314-1459 or email research@pedaids.org. Also see www.pedaids.org.
